

The Gardens

At the rear of the Museum are some pleasant and spacious gardens which are easily accessible to all.

Here you can just sit and enjoy the view and reflect on your visit to Hornsea Museum or, if you are still hungry for history, look at more historical items from the old local railway and industries of the past.